iconstorm DIGITAL DESIGN

WE ARE LOOKING FOR A

Creative Coder Prototyping (Junior)

YOUR TASKS

- You develop convincing prototypes and demonstrators from ideas.
- You experience the concepts and approaches of new digital products.
- You also use unconventional methods and don't necessarily work according to textbooks.
- The big picture interests you as much as it does the Action State formulated in detail.
- You help our team in developing new products and services.

YOUR NEW TEAM

Iconstorm is an agency for the design of digital products. We believe in the importance of good design and create meaningful innovations. In our spacious rooms in Frankfurt's West-end district, we work on sophisticated design and innovation projects for international corporations, forward-thinking medium-sized companies and ambitious start-ups. We are charged with creativity, attention to detail and a clear claim to leadership in digital change. Our high expectations – in us, our projects and the quality of our results – characterise our daily work.
